Côme: must-have designs

Created by talented duo Clémence and Matthieu Dru, this impeccable store is fast becoming a byword for style. A favorite of Léa Seydoux, Caroline de Maigret and Marie Gillain, Côme's Paris-made dresses and jackets in silk and cotton have earned points with the fashion pundits. The brand's sophisticated but deliciously disheveled look is like a breath of pure fresh air. The super chic straight-cut tops, embroidered shirts and flowered trousers sold in this store and workshop close to the place des Victoires are simply irresistible. A graduate of Esmod and Polimoda, the young designer with a model's physique and her brother, an ideal alter ego for this collection with an androgynous touch, have designed
